

SQUAMISH DAYS PARADE INFORMATION

Thank you for your interest and entry into the 60th Annual Squamish Days Loggers Sports Festival Parade, taking place on Sunday, August 5th, 2018.

We are asking that participants exceed their usual enthusiasm and create their best floats and parade entries yet! There are no entry fees, and the parade is a great way to advertise your business, club, association, or group, and to spread some community spirit.

A distinguished panel of judges will select the Top 3 Parade entries who will be awarded with the prize money breakdown noted below, for donation towards a local Squamish non-profit or charity (conditions apply) in their name:

1st Place - $500 donation

2nd Place - $300 donation

3rd Place - $200 donation

Selected recipients must be a Squamish based non-profit or charity, and their funds or services must benefit Squamish directly. All winners must submit their charity of choice for approval to the Squamish Days Loggers Sports Committee.

Event Information:

The parade staging area is located at the dryland log sort in downtown Squamish.

Entrants should plan to be at the staging by 10.00am.

All entrants must register at the Squamish Emergency Program Command Vehicle.

Directions:

From Highway 99, turn onto Cleveland Avenue – towards downtown Squamish

Follow Cleveland Avenue until the end, turn left onto Vancouver Avenue

Cross the railroad tracks – Vancouver Avenue becomes Loggers Lane

The dryland sort is on the left, just beyond the Squamish Yacht Club

The parade route follows Cleveland Avenue back to Pemberton Avenue and will end in the parking lot behind the Bank of Montreal.

Please note, the parade will be held rain or shine.

Please return your completed entry form by July 21st by email to: loggersparade@gmail.com
